EDWARD MCAFEE IS INJURED.

Bridge Supervisor of the Henderson Route Has Both Legs Broken.

Edward McAfee, of this city, bridge supervisor for the Henderson Route, had both legs broken, at Gaston, Friday, by being struck by a piece of piling. The piling was being loaded on a car, when one end slipped and struck Mr. McAfee below the knees. The accident occurred shortly after noon. The piling was being loaded on the "pile-driver" train from the side of the track with a derrick. Some of the piling was about fifty feet in length, and as Mr. McAfee was taking a momentary rest, while standing near the train, one of the long pieces was swung into place. The larger end accidentally caught in a drain box and the smaller end swung around with great force, striking Mr. McAfee and causing a compound fracture of the right leg above the ankle and a simple break of the left leg below the knee. Fortunately he was struck in the lower part of the body and suffered no internal injuries.

The injuries of Mr. McAfee were dressed by Dr. J. V. Frewitt, surgeon for the Henderson Route, at West Point, and then he was brought on special train to his home in this city, where he has been resting very well.

Until Mr. McAfee recovers from his injuries, his duties as bridge supervisor for the main line and branch line of the Henderson Route will be looked after by J. G. Brashear, of West Point, bridge supervisor on the extension, who will give part of his time to each division of the road.

Life.
The poet's exclamation: "O Life! I feel thee bounding in my veins," is a joyous one. Hence, that can scarcely or never make it, in honesty to themselves, are among the most unfortunate. They do not live, but exist; for to live implies more than to be. To live is to be well and strong—to arise feeling equal to the ordinary duties of the day. The man who overcomes by the force of his bounding in the veins. A medicine that has made thousands of people, men and women, well and strong, has accompanied a great work, bestowing the richest blessings, and that medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla. The weak, run-down, or debilitated, from any cause, should not fail to take it. It builds up the whole system, changes existence into life, and makes life more abundant. We are glad to say these words in its favor to the readers of our columns.

No Secret About It.

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Bolls, etc., nothing is so effective as Buckle's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. See at Short & Haynes drug store.

Ice Factory in Operation.

The Cloverport Water, Light & Ice company's ice factory, with a daily capacity of ten tons, began operation Friday, and the company is now supplying the city and vicinity. Besides selling ice here and at Tobinsport they will probably soon establish a market for their product at various points on the main and branch lines of the Henderson Route. Eugene Shoff has charge of the factory's delivery wagon here.

The price of ice is lower here now than it has been in several years.

EPWORTH LEAGUE LAWN FETE THURSDAY WAS A MOST SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL EVENT.

The lawn fete given last Thursday evening by the Epworth League, on the vacant lot between the stores of M. Hansen & Son and Julian Brown, was pronounced by many who attended to be the most enjoyable social event, for the benefit of other religious or fraternal organizations, in the history of the city. It was, in some respects, more like a carnival than a lawn fete, and the first affair of the kind ever given here. Though not as large as some other social events in the past, it was more attractive and comprehensive in detail for its size. Pleasantly surprised and delightfully entertained were those who attended, and highly gratified were the League members over its results. In every respect it was a decided success.

One of the happy features was the short time occupied in preparing for the fete, a half hundred or more League workers working together, harmoniously and preparing their costumes, various booths and other features just a few days before the event. Nearly all members of the League who took part were costumed, this being a feature which was very pleasing and which helped largely to draw the crowd. The costumes were all faithful in the representation of the various nationalities present and under the brilliant illumination of scores of Japanese lanterns and a locomotive headlight, they made a pretty and gay scene. Flags and bunting on the various booths added to the beauty of the spectacle. Cream, cakes, cold drinks and other refreshments were served at the

Mrs. Withers' Recital.

The following was written by friends and patrons of Mrs. Withers and is published at their request.

Hardsburg, Ky., June 9. On Friday evening, June 3, Mrs. Withers' music class gave a recital at the opera house, one of the largest and most appreciative audiences ever gathered in our town. At 8:30 the program opened and from the first selection to the last, the interest and keen enjoyment was plainly visible and manifested by continued applause. There was not one dull moment and the music-loving people are loud in their praise of this most brilliant affair. The finest of music was rendered, even the smallest piano playing sweetly and melodiously. Little Virginia Hook, the baby of the class, Mary Emma Baker and Ruth Haged, first-year pupils, and bright, little Judith Ellen Beard, winning all hearts with her sweet, bird-like voice, and her instrumental solos.

The choruses were fine and were greatly enjoyed and showed that the drilling was done by one who thoroughly understood the art of successful chorus-training.

The program was interspersed with duets and trios, bright, sparkling and intelligently rendered by each pupil. Especially admired were "Parade Review," by Misses Margaret Beard and Louise Beeler, and "Pizzicati," by Isabel Hendrick and Ruth Haged. The encore bestowed on Mary Franklin Beard and Frances Dillon was justly merited. They are both highly talented, faithful workers, and will some day stand high in the musical world.

The recitation by John Skillman with music was greatly enjoyed as well as his duet, played with Miss Margaret Beard.

Misses Martina and Isabel Gardner excel in piano solos and their brilliant rendition of songs and duets calls for the highest praise. With the careful and thorough training they are receiving, we can but predict a bright future for them.

Miss Louise Beeler in voice is a star, and it is given to few girls of her age to so completely hold and charm an audience. Her magnificent soprano voice is rare and with such a wonderful gift she will some day be a "Queen of Song."

Her piano partners were most beautiful and threw a soft shade of coloring over the already perfect program.

Hardsburg should be proud of Mrs. Withers. Her devotion to her work is unsurpassed. She has proven herself a musician in the true sense and a most capable and successful instructor.

National Organizer Will Speak.

H. B. Sherman, national organizer of the American Society of Equity, will speak at the barbecue which will be given at Hardsburg on July 4 by W. N. Pate, John C. Riley, Huse Alexander and Jubal Hook.

Second Railroad for Cloverport.

Right of Way for Proposed Line From Madisonville Secured and Work Will Begin This Summer.

Sunday's Courier-Journal contained a special dispatch from Madisonville which read as follows: "The right of way of the new proposed railroad between this city and Cloverport, was secured to-day through Hopkins county to Pond river, President H. H. Holeman and others of the Commercial Club went over the entire distance in vehicles and signed every inch of ground needed in this county. The right of way through Muhlenberg and Breckenridge counties has been secured, thereby assuring the road. Bonds will be issued at once for the construction, which will begin this summer."

The first mention of the proposed railroad from Madisonville to Cloverport in the News was not made until last week. The movement to build the road has been pushed almost entirely at the Madisonville end of the line and the people of this county have not been interested in the project until very recently. From what can be learned from various sources the railroad seems to be a certainty. A railroad like the one proposed would open up one of the richest and most extensive coal and timber belts in the State and would be of incalculable benefit to Cloverport.

As far as is known here the right of way in Breckenridge county has not been secured. It is thought that the route by which the proposed road will come will be over the old short-line road bed from Victoria, as it is also the old pier into the Ohio river which could be profitably utilized. J. A. Barry, local agent of the Breckenridge Cannel Coal company, says that the right of way over this road bed has not been secured through him as agent, but may have been through the central office of his company.

Remarkable Cow Dead.

Regarding the death of a remarkable cow owned by Mrs. Frank Eades, who formerly resided in this city and is well known here, Sunday's Owensboro Inquirer says, in part:

"Mrs. Frank Eades is disconsolate for the loss of her cow, Rose, and well she may be. The animal was looked upon as almost a member of the family, and when she died Saturday her owner shed tears of genuine sorrow."

"Rose was born in May, 1883. In May, 1893, twenty years ago, she had her first calf. Since that time she had been dry six weeks. It is calculated that in that time she gave 17,350 gallons of milk and made 6,240 pounds of butter. Counting the milk as skimmed milk and buttermilk, it was worth $1,725 and at the price that butter has averaged for many years it was worth $1,390, a total of $3,285. Her last calf was born in 1900, and she has been giving milk constantly since that time. She was milked Friday evening and seemed to be in perfect health, as she was in fine condition. Her death was certainly the result of old age."

Matron at Confederate Home.

Miss Lela Henly has accepted the position of matron at the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley. Miss Henly was postmistress under both of Cleveland's administrations. She assumed her duties last week.

Regarding the appointment of Miss Henly to the position, the Owensboro Inquirer says editorially: "Miss Lela Henly, of Cloverport, has been elected matron of the Confederate home at Pewee Valley. If the state had been gone over a more worthy, deserving, capable and efficient woman could not have been found for the place."

Neck Broken By Fall.

Hawesville, Ky., June 10.—Owen Murphy, a farmer aged 59, was thrown from his wagon here Saturday, falling on his head, broke his neck and died immediately. He had come to town from his farm two miles above town for a load of coal and was returning home with it. He had been drinking as was his habit, and was standing up in the wagon-driving, or attempting to drive, his team, when the wagon wheel hit a rock and he was thrown out with the above result.

Obituary.

When the sun went down on the grave of Mr. Harrison Dowell, on February 28, 1905, it shone on the last resting place of one of the oldest and best-known citizens of this (Breckenridge) county. Mr. Dowell was born in this county in 1816. He passed all his long, useful life near the place he was born. In 1845 he was married to Miss Nancy Jones, a lady of great intelligence, and one well fitted for the useful life she lived, rearing to woman and manhood a family of seven children. Of these two, Mrs. Mattie Grant and Mr. Marion Dowell, died leaving families of their own, and three others passed away at an early age, making ten children born to this union.

Mr. Dowell was converted at the age of sixteen years, and joined the Cumberland Presbyterian church, living in that church till he was seventy-six years old, at which time he was led to see that to fulfill all righteousness he must be baptized with "Christ" in baptism, which he was. When he went down into the water and came up out of it clothed in newness of life. He was not a demonstrative Christian, but walked in a humble, quiet path of rectitude doing all that laid in his power and ability for the good of those around him. He was an obliging and peaceable neighbor, a visitor and helper to the sick and afflicted.

But he is gone, "not dead but only sleeping." That he will be missed. He could not say, "The companion of my youth still survives him." She is now seventy-seven years old and is only waiting to greet him on the other shore. The children who survive him are Lewis Dowell, of Sample, Ky.; Will Dowell, of Oak Hill, West Va.; Mrs. Logan Basham, of Kypple, Kan.; Mrs. Leon Atkinson, Fox, Kan.; and Mrs. G. W. Wayne Stephensport. "Dear father, thou hast gone and left us."

And thy loss we deeply feel, But 'tis dead that has bereft us. He could not say, "The companion of my youth still survives him." She is now seventy-seven years old and is only waiting to greet him on the other shore. The children who survive him are Lewis Dowell, of Sample, Ky.; Will Dowell, of Oak Hill, West Va.; Mrs. Logan Basham, of Kypple, Kan.; Mrs. Leon Atkinson, Fox, Kan.; and Mrs. G. W. Wayne Stephensport. "Dear father, thou hast gone and left us."

When our sorrows all are fled, When our sorrows all are fled, When our sorrows all are fled, When our sorrows all are fled.

Cures Without Stomach Dosing.

Home Cures Catarrh by Simple Breathing, Short & Haynes Refund Money if It Fails To Cure.

A long stride toward solving the mystery of curing catarrh was taken with the discovery of Hymel. In fact, the percentage of cures by this treatment proves it equal to the final test.

The folly of taking medicine into the stomach to cure catarrh of the nose, throat and lungs, has been realized by physicians, but not until Hymel was known, had they a practical method that would obviate stomach dosing.

A complete Hymel outfit costs but $4, and consists of a neat pocket inhaler that can be used anywhere without attracting attention, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hymel. Extra bottles of Hymel cost but 50c.

Breathing Hymel through the inhaler, every particle of air that enters the nose, throat and lungs, is charged with a healing balsam that soothes and allays all irritation, kills the catarrhal germs and enriches the blood with additional ozone.

Short & Haynes have so much faith in the power of Hymel to cure catarrh, that they are selling it under their personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not give positive relief.

IMPROVEMENTS OF HENDERSON ROUTE.

Will Build Terminals in Louisville-New Depot At Owensboro-To Build Extension to Uniontown.

It developed yesterday that the block surrounded by Thirtieth, Fourteenth, Main and Market streets, purchased by the Columbia Finance and Trust Company, is to be used for terminals for the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis Railway Company says the Louisville Herald. The Trust Company purchased the property last fall in small parcels, paying for it an aggregate of about $200,000, but the pretense of secrecy was maintained to the object of the purchase. There was one small parcel of property on the block that could not be purchased, and it was when the railroad company brought condemnation proceedings yesterday that the object of last fall's purchase was made known. All the property on the block had been purchased except St. Patrick's church at Thirtieth and Market streets and the parochial school and residence adjoining.

The railroad company has served notice on all occupants in that district to vacate the premises in thirty days, and yesterday condemnation suits were brought to secure property now occupied by William Boettner, George J. Guttman, Mrs. Lizzie Schneider, Mathilda Koed, George, John, Charles and Joe Boettner. The property fronts fifteen feet on Main and runs back 105 feet.

The Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis railway will have one of the finest and most convenient terminals in the city, independent of the Illinois Central, over whose tracks it now enters the city. It used the Seventh-street depot for a passenger station and used the freight lines of the Illinois Central.

The terminal location will be especially convenient on account of railroad connections in the vicinity, which include the Pennsylvania lines, the Louisville Central, Illinois Central, Baltimore and Ohio, Southern, Monon and Louisville and Nashville railroads. The latter road is reached over the Louisville Bridge Company's tracks. The Louisville and Nashville road gets 51 percent of the Henderson route's gross earnings in traffic to St. Louis and Louisville and Evansville tracks are used between Evansville and Louisville by the Henderson route.

To Build Passenger Depot. Arrangements are being completed for the building of a passenger depot in Owensboro by the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis railway. The Corner Journal General Manager McCracken says that the attempt to get an agreement between all of the roads entering Owensboro so that a union station can be provided is still being persisted in, but that one of the roads has thus far refused to become a party to such an agreement. The Louisville and Nashville, he says, is anxious to enter into an agreement for a union depot, but the Illinois Central refuses to do so. He thinks there would be much more reason for a refusal on the part of the L. and

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from just menstruating—the pain was excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the womb. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Her second letter:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I cannot live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent post card. Yet how much she has gained. As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers aiding women helpful advice.

N. as it has a much better station than the Illinois Central. A more expensive building would be erected if an agreement among the roads could be reached, and on this account the L. H. and St. L. officials have delayed somewhat in having plans drawn.

Extension From Henderson. The Uniontown Telegram says it has information from an authentic source to the effect that the Henderson route will extend its track from Henderson to Uniontown. Concerning the proposed extension the Owensboro Messenger says, in part:—

"Apparently a revival of railroad building in this section of Kentucky is about to be brought about. The prospects for a railroad between Madisonville and Cloverport amount almost to a certainty and the statement is given out positively that the L. H. and St. L. will extend lines from Henderson to Uniontown.

"The proposed extension of 'Texes' from Henderson to Uniontown would be of great benefit to Owensboro shippers. For several years one of the principal difficulties in getting from Owensboro into the territory west of Henderson has been the inability to get freight routed through by way of Henderson. The line to Uniontown would eliminate the difficulty as to a considerable part of that territory. General Manager McCracken has recently spent considerable time in Henderson and it is regarded as certain that a part of that time was spent in looking into the advisability of extending the road."

S. S. Workers At Somerset. Somerset, Ky., June 7.—The fortieth annual session of the Kentucky Sunday school Association convened in this city today. Four hundred delegates and visitors are expected to arrive this afternoon on a special train over the Q. and C. route. The session convenes at the Opera House at 2:30 p. m. and will be opened by an address by the Rev. Gilbert Glass, of Stanford, Ky. The citizens of Somerset have opened their doors for the visitors, and hope to make this one of the largest and best sessions of the Sunday school Association ever held in this State.

No Abatement in Rural Routes. According to tables prepared in the division of rural free delivery which have just been laid before Postmaster General Cortelyou by the fourth assistant postmaster general there is yet no perceptible abatement in the demand for rural free delivery service. There are pending 4,708 petitions on file a year ago. Rural routes are being ordered into effect at an average rate of about 69 a month.

T. J. Hook Granted Patent. Thomas J. Hook of Hardinsburg, has been granted a patent on a tent pole, which he invented sometime ago. The tent pole was described in the News at the time the invention was completed.

LODAVIC THOMPSON

DIES BY OWN HAND.

Farmer and Former Inmate of An Asylum Shoots Himself in the Heart at Home Near Cloverport.

Lodavie Thompson, a farmer and a former inmate of the asylum at Lakeland, committed suicide last Wednesday morning between 7 and 8 o'clock, by shooting himself through the heart with a single-reloaded shotgun, at his home on the Bowling Green road, two and one-half miles south of this city. Mr. Thompson had acute stomach trouble, which is supposed to have affected his mind. He was an inmate of the asylum at Lakeland for several months but was returned home about a year ago, though uncurd, at the request of his wife. The exact cause of his killing himself is not known, though it had been apparent for a long time to the members of his family that he had been unloading over something, and at many times his actions were very strange.

On Wednesday morning Mr. Thompson ate a hearty breakfast, remarking that he felt better than he had for sometime and that he intended doing some painting about the house that day. After the meal was over he went to his room upstairs. Shortly afterward a shot rang out and Mrs. Thompson and a daughter rushed to his room. They found him seated in a chair with the shotgun on the floor in front of him. He was leaning toward them, but did not speak. They saw at a glance what he had done and rushed downstairs. Geo. N. Harris, a neighbor of Mr. Thompson's, was on the scene shortly after and when he went upstairs he found Mr. Thompson lying on the floor. He had apparently lived only an instant. His wife and daughter heard him fall out of his chair when they ran down stairs.

Mr. Harris and others made a search of the room. A razor was found on a bureau. He had not been shaving, and it is supposed he had deliberately and carefully planned his death and that he had this weapon in readiness in case he should not be successful in accomplishing his purpose with the shotgun. The shotgun, which was a muzzle loader, was kept standing in a corner of the room and was loaded with small shot.

A thorough search of the room failed to reveal any note left behind by Mr. Thompson or anything to throw light on the cause of the suicide. The excitement the razor itself was not found until Wednesday afternoon.

A young man who is a cropper on one of Mr. Thompson's farms sated to a representative of the News that the unfortunate man had said before his death that he (the young man) was going to kill him and his family. His family knew that he had been brooding over something and this would indicate that the thought of some one being killed was in his mind, though it is not remembered that he ever spoke of having any intention of doing harm to himself or others.

The general theory as to the manner in which he used the shotgun is that he placed the butt on the floor and the barrel close to his breast, using his foot to move the hammer, the guard preventing him from pulling the trigger with his foot. Part of the shot entered the heart, while the others ranged closely around it, and the skin was badly powder burned.

Coroner Lee B. arrived from Hardinsburg at 12:30 and the inquest was held at 1 o'clock. The verdict of the jury was as follows: "We, the jury, find that Lodavie Thompson came to his death by a gunshot wound, in the heart, inflicted by his own hand."

The suicide of Mr. Thompson was particularly a deplorable event because of the fact that he was a man who had some admirable traits. One of his neighbors said he never knew of a more honest and industrious man. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, and Murray Post, G. A. R., of this place.

Mr. Thompson was born in Scotland in 1842. When a young man he came to this country with his mother and a brother. A large part of his life was spent in this country and he owned two farms on one of which he lived. He is survived by his wife and two grown daughters, Miss Annie and Eunomia Thompson, and one brother, whose home is near Cincinnati.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon, the interment being at the city cemetery. The services were at the grave and were conducted by Rev. P. L. King. The funeral procession was a large one for the distance it came. The bridge over Tarfork creek was being repaired at the time and the floor had to be laid before it could cross, making a long delay.

Madisonville Paper Speaks Harshly About Van Amburg Circus.

Concerning the Van Amburg circus, which was at Hardinsburg last Wednesday, Glenn's Graphic, of Madisonville, says:—

"Its newspapers and other reports in regard to the Van Amburg show, which was here a week or two ago, be true, and we doubt not they are, the management of that concern is under just about the slickest and worst set of rascals that ever went through this country. It seems that wherever the show stopped that suckers were taken in by the dozen and in some instances were skinned out of large sums of money."

Before the show came to Kentucky, while across the river, all the towns visited suffered. At Springfield, Tenn., after it left here, one fool got pulled for $725, while others got pulled for smaller amounts. While no one has any particular sympathy for the man who loses his money in a skin game, yet all feel that the proprietors of such, with those who patronize them, ought to be dealt with according to law."

Slogan of Davies Farmers. The Owensboro Messenger says that "Hold Wheat Crops" will be the slogan of the farmers in Davies county this summer.

State Out of Debt. The statement of the financial condition of Kentucky made by the State Treasurer at Frankfort Saturday should commend itself to all persons seeking a home or investment where taxes are low and where there is practically no State debt. The last of the registered bonds of 1885 have been paid, and the total State debt now consists of but $10,000 of coupon bonds, while there is $400,000 in the Treasury. The General Assembly is limited by the Constitution in its power to contract debts, in time of peace, beyond $500,000. Nor can the credit of the State be given to any individual or corporation, or the State become an owner or stockholder in any corporation. These provisions of the Constitution proved the great safeguard against the creation of a bonded debt during the war, such as the Southern States generally suffered from. More than one-half of the State tax levied annually goes to the support of the common system

THOUGHTS.

"When you pay more for the rent of your business house than for advertising your business, you are pursuing a false policy. If you can do business, let it be known."—Benjamin Franklin.

The crops need a little more moisture to brighten them up.

Farmers are now reaping grains of gold from their mines of wheat.

Our heart and hand to the June brides. Nothing sweeter on earth than a June bride.

The French government has contracted for 1,500,000 pounds of American leaf tobacco.

This is a great month for weeds. Manage to cut down a few every day and keep the stock down.

Texas shipped the first carload of 1905 wheat last Friday. The crop in that state is estimated at 11,000,000 bushels.

The way to get your money's worth out of this paper is to read every item on every page, including the advertisements.

A big revival is going on in Wall Street, New York. Religion is just as necessary to the dwellers in Wall Street as it is to those in the Bowery. The devil gets into the high places as well as the low.

Give a healthy child something to occupy him and interest him and he will be happy and, consequently, good. Some people pay more attention to their little chicks than they do to their children. The result is good chicks and bad children.

If every man would clean out the weeds in front of his own property, we would have nice, clean pavements and sidewalks. An hour put in every morning will soon get rid of Mr. Weed. All hands to the hoe now and let's have a general cleaning up. Health and happiness will be your reward.

Our latest advices on the new wheat crop, estimated, of course, is that the winter crop will be 400 millions and the spring crop 250 millions, 150 millions more than needed for home consumption. This means that the export surplus will make the price and that the price will be around seventy-five cents. The farmer's option is this: takes seventy-five cents or hold, for higher prices.

The Rocky Mountain News says:
"No country weekly should be placed in a position where it is compelled to beg for the subscriptions due it. Subscribers should have enough pride in their home town, their home country and their home paper to pay up. It is a black eye to any community to have the home paper continually reminding its delinquents that they should remit. It looks as though the country was too poor to support a paper."

A candidate for a prominent county office in Breckenridge played the races at Louisville recently and it is said, he won $1,800. This amount he proposes to put into the campaign to win his election. We want to warn him right now that buying votes, either with money or whiskey, is played out in this country. The best element in both parties is against this order of campaign and the man who attempts to buy his way into office will find himself beautifully left.

THE TRIUMPH OF SOBER JAPAN.

"The result of the battle is, in reality, the triumph of sober Japan over whiskey soaked Russia," says the Toronto Globe. "It is the greatest temperance lecture ever delivered to the world, to nations and to individuals as well.

"What was proved on the wreck strewn Straits of Corea had already been proved in the destruction of the Port Arthur squadron, in the running fight with the Vladivostok cruisers, in the reduction of an almost impregnable fortress, and in the land operations in Manchuria. It was in each case Japan against Russia, but it was more. It was temperance against debauchery.

"Japan's achievements on land and sea were not directed by men who had spent their days and nights in idleness and dissipation. They were the product of lives of strong, steadfast, sober endeavor, the very opposite of what their enemy had been.

The lesson of the war is not for Russia alone. It is for every nation and every individual who seeks stability and advancement. Great Britain's greatest danger today is the intemperance of her people. Intemperance and progress do not go together. They are, as Sir Fredrick Treves said the other day, hopelessly antagonistic. This eminent authority made the statement that alcoholic drink, even in small quantities, absorbs human energy and minimizes the effort of the individual.

"Russia has learned this truth, but at a terrible cost. Let Great Britain profit from this lesson before it is too late."

And, we say, let Kentucky and Breckenridge county and Cloverport take a lesson from this. No man, nation, state, county, city or town can afford to let whiskey get the upper hand.

Lightning Strikes Residence.

Hardsburg, Ky., June 13.—(Special.)—During the thunder-storm Sunday lightning struck the residence of Chas. M. Heston, tearing out one side of the cement of a window and knocking off considerable plastering. It shook the several members of the family, but no one was injured.

In the Sickroom.

In a sickroom open the door promptly without rattling the handle. Walk in quietly, but do not take ostentatious care to glide in absolute silence. Don't pause and murmur inquiries to the nurse, but go straight to the bed and speak in a clearly audible, everyday tone to the patient.

Choose topics of interest that will entertain without being exciting, leaving a few ideas with your invalid as food for pleasant reflection after your leave taking, and making only a passing reference to the present malady.

Look as fresh and pretty as the flower in your lies, and thereby act as an unconscious tonic to your friend. Avoid any article of dress that jingles or rustles.

Having risen to say goodly, go instantly without lingering over last words or pouring forth exaggerated condolences and hopes.

The House of Lords.

The house of lords was composed ninety of clerics until the time of Edward III. There are 120 in the house, twenty spiritual and forty-nine lay members, including twenty archbishops and bishops, thirty-seven abbots and priors and three masters of orders. Many clerical dignitaries summoned did not attend at Westminster, refusing to recognize the authority of parliament over their own convocations of Canterbury and York. It was partly from this cause that the lords spiritual decreased in number until early in the reign of Edward III. The upper house consisted of eighty-six lay and only forty-five clerical peers, while during Elizabeth's parliament there were forty-three and twenty-six respectively.—London Standard.

The Rate of Human Growth.

"We grow at a uniform rate," said a physician. "There are rules of growth that unchangeably we all observe as follows: 'First year, eight inches; second year, six inches; third year, five inches; fourth year, four inches; fifth year, four inches; sixth year, four inches. From the sixth on the growth is slower until the sixteenth year—it is only one and a half inches a year. The seventeenth year has a growth of two inches. The eighteenth year has a growth of one inch. At eighteen the average man is five feet eight inches high. Thereafter he grows no more.'—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Thinking and Doing.

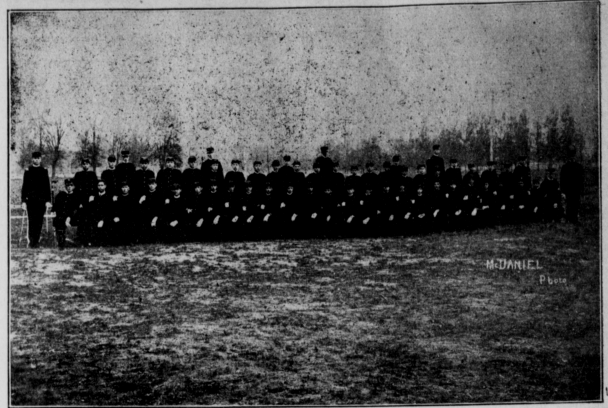

I have been a great deal happier since I have given up thinking about what is easy and pleasant and being discontented because I could not have my own way. Our life is determined for us, and it makes the mind very free when we give up wishing and only think of bearing what is laid upon us and doing what is given us to do.—George Eliot.

A Witty Diagnosis.

The object of the duel is said to be the healing of wounded honor. To try to cure a wound of the spirit, or rather, the temper, by a scratch on the skin savors of homeopathy, but may perhaps be justified by the surgical principle of relieving tension by incision.—British Medical Journal.

Homemaking.

Men do not make their homes unhappy because they have genius, but because they have not enough genius. A mind and sentiments of a higher order would render them capable of seeing and feeling all the beauty of domestic ties.—Wordsworth.

Coleman Cade's, Company A., Louisville Training School, Beechmont.

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia.
It makes life miserable.
Its sufferers eat not because they want to, but simply because they must.
They know they are irritable and fretful; but they cannot be otherwise.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tendency at the pit of the stomach, an uneasy feeling of puffiness, headache, heartburn and what not.

ROOSEVELT DOVE OF PEACE.

He Will be Successful in Getting Russia and Japan Together.

Washington, June 12.—Official assurance that the President's efforts to bring Russia and Japan together toward peace will be crowned with success was brought to the White House today by Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, who called by appointment, and in the name of Emperor Nicholas formally accepted the President's "offer of good will."

The following official statement regarding the conference was issued at the White House:

"Ambassador Cassini has called to express the Russian Government's assent to the President's proposition and to state that they would appoint plenipotentiaries to meet the plenipotentiaries of Japan to discuss the question of peace. The place of meeting is at present being discussed."

During the past two weeks the President's efforts have been directed toward bringing the belligerents into amicable contact on the basis of a mutual agreement to consider terms of peace.

This he accomplished finally today. It remains now for the belligerent powers to name their plenipotentiaries and agree upon a time and place for them to meet to discuss terms and to negotiate a treaty of peace.

We thank the News for the program of our Children's Day.

Chas. Drury is having a new porch put up in front of his house.

Miss Fannie Hardaway will leave this week for Frankfort to visit relatives.

Miss Alberta Drury has returned home after an extended stay with Mrs. Kate Bennett.

Hon. G. W. Richardson is making preparations to build a new house on the old site.

Among the guests Sunday were Mrs. Irene Fontaine and children, lately returned from Van Buren, Ark.

Ed Foote, of Owensboro, was here Sunday visiting relatives and attending Sunday-school exercises.

Morris Jolly, of Irvington, spent Friday at Dewey Heights. It is a pleasure to have him able to make the trip.

Mrs. Albright lost a pocket-book Sunday containing a pair of gold rimmed spectacles, which she hopes someone has found and will return to her.

Miss Ina McCoy entertained several young lady friends Monday, in honor of her guest, Miss Cora McCoy, of Union Star, who will make her a visit of a week or more.

Children's Day Sunday was quite a success, a red letter day, indeed. A slight shower interfered with the morning exercises, but the ones who had it in hand managed with tact and steered safely thro', so that the friends present were loud in their praises. There was a large crowd present, an ample dinner and a good collection. The children acquitted themselves with great credit.

Gasoline Boats Measured.

James P. Thomas and Clay Miller, of the office of the Surveyor of Port, at Louisville, were here and at Stephensport Sunday to measure the gasoline boats operating at the two points. They measured the "A-y-o" at Stephensport, and the gasoline boats here owned by T. F. Sawyer, Wood Weatherholt, O. T. Skillman and Fred Frazer. The boats were measured for the purpose of ascertaining if they were over fifteen tons capacity, in which case they would have to be turned over to the government inspectors and operated by licensed men and fully equipped with life preservers, thus bringing them under regulations of steam-gauging vessels. It was found that all of the boats measured less than fifteen tons capacity. Each boat owner had to pay five dollars to Messrs. Thomas and Clay, as a result of their visit and will have to equip his boat with a bell and a whistle, though it is not expected that this law will be enforced before July 1.

TORTURE AND HUMILIATION

For Fifteen Years Face and Body Mass of Itching Sores—Could Not Express Suffering—Doctors Failed—Had Lost Hope

CURED BY CUTICURA AT COST OF $1.25

"My head was one mass of scabs, my forehead was covered down almost to my eyebrows, and I had to wear my hat all the time. My body was covered with spots in size from a pin-head to as large as a silver dollar. A white, crusty scab would form and itch, and would not come off. The torture and humiliation I suffered for fifteen years. I tried many doctors, and all kinds of treatments, but could get no help, and I thought there was no hope for me. A friend told me to get Cuticura. I did, and in three days my head was as clear as ever. I applied the Ointment freely and morning, also taking a hot bath three times a week, and using the Ointment freely after the bath. After using one cake of Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was completely cured, without mark or blemish. I was so pleased I felt like running down the street to tell every one I met what Cuticura had done for me. If any one is in doubt about this, they may write to me, (signed) H. B. Franklin, 717 Washington St., Allegheny, Pa."

COMPLETE TREATMENT For Every Humour $1

"The Lost Chord."

Sir Arthur Sullivan was at one time greatly worried about what appeared to him to be a bad inconsistency in "The Lost Chord." Sir John Robinson tells the story: "The words are, 'I struck one chord of music like the sound of a great Amen.' Now, Amen is one of two syllables, so that there must have been two chords. He did not notice this, he said, until after the song had been sung in public, and he was terribly afraid he would get laughed at for it. Struggle to say, nobody ever seemed to have found it out."

Not a Lingering Fault.

"Dear George," said the bride of three short weeks. "He is such an awful flatterer." "That fault," rejoined her elder sister, who had long ago acquired the matrimonial game for her long-companioned husband, "will gradually disappear as the honeymoon wanes." "Oh, dear!" sighed the bride, "I was in hopes it would last forever."—Chicago News.

His Doubtful Complaint.

"What was that he said?" queried the indignant grocer. "Did he dare insinuate that I ought to put less sand in my sugar?" "Not at all. When I told him that you were selling sugar cheaper than any other dealer in town he said it took sand to do business like you did."—Houston Post.

TWO BEAUTIFUL WOMEN WHO ESCAPED SPRING CATARRH BY TAKING PE-RU-NA.

Spring Fever is Spring Catarrh=Nothing Robs One of Strength Like Spring Catarrh.

MISS ESTELLE CAMPBELL.

Miss Estelle Campbell, 140 N. High street, Nashville, Tenn., writes:
"Peruna helped me when almost everything else failed. I was run down from overwork, as I had not been able to take a vacation for three years and naturally my nerves were all unstrung and I was greatly in need of rest and a tonic."
"I went away for two months, but did not seem to get my strength back, although I was taking a prescription which the doctor gave me before I went away."
"At the request of my relatives, with whom I was visiting, I began to use Peruna, and you cannot realize how glad I was when within a week I found I was feeling so much better. Inside of a month I was feeling splendidly, ready and able to take up my work again."—Estelle Campbell.

A Spring Tonic.

Almost everybody needs a tonic in the spring. Something to brace the nerves, invigorate the brain, and cleanse the blood. That Peruna will do this is beyond all question.

We have on file thousands of letters which testify to the curative and preventive value of Peruna in cases of nervous depression and run down conditions of the system. We quote a typical case:

"Mr. Frank Williams, 3535 84th street, New York City, member First Presbyterian Church and Captain Capitol Golf Club, writes:
"Last spring I suffered with malaria and a run down condition which seemed very difficult to overcome."

"I tried several different tonics but did not seem to get much better until I began using Peruna. My recovery was slow, but I was improving and I was glad to continue using it."
"At the end of two months my health was restored and I looked and felt much better than I had for years. Your remedy is well worthy of a recommendation and I am pleased to give it mine."—Frank Williams.

Peruna never fails to prevent spring catarrh or nervous prostration, if taken in time.

Pe-ru-na is the Finest Tonic For a Weary Woman.

Miss B. Inez Silvera, 189 W. 130th street, New York City, Grand Recorder Daughters of American Independence, writes:
"Nine years of work, without a vacation, wore out my nervous system. I lost my appetite and felt weak and exhausted nearly all the time."
"Peruna restored me to perfect health in five weeks. It is the finest tonic for a weary woman that I know of. I gladly endorse it."—B. Inez Silvera.

Peruna is the most prompt and permanent cure for all cases of nervous prostration caused by systemic catarrh known to the medical profession.

MISS B. INEZ SILVERA.

Pe-ru-na Contains No Narcotics.

One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. Peruna is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peruna does not produce temporary results. It is permanent in its effect.

It has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh. There are a multitude of homes where Peruna has been used of and on for twenty years. Such a thing could not be possible if Peruna contained any drugs of a narcotic nature. All correspondence should be strictly confidential.

Peruna never fails to prevent spring catarrh or nervous prostration, if taken in time.
